

REQUEST FORM

The Panther Fund is an independent nonprofit organization that provides financial assistance to West Ottawa middle and high school students who desire to participate in athletics, arts, music, and academics but are unable due to financial constraints. The Panther Fund believes that every student who wants to participate should be able. Financial assistance will be given to students to cover basic participation equipment, insurance, physical and registration fees as well as team/club apparel.

For a complete list of eligible programs and items, visit our website.
Once this form is completed, please submit it to the appropriate point person listed below.
